

Web Store Example

- Draw a use case diagram to show the typical actions performed when purchasing an item from an online web store. Users can browse the store catalogue for items to purchase. Only registered customers can purchase items from the web store. Express delivery is optional on items for an extra cost.