Airport Departure

- Draw a use case to model departures at an airport. Passengers must check-in for their flight. They must then clear security before proceeding to the terminal. Passengers can purchase items from the duty-free shop while waiting for their flight to depart. Passengers can choose between standard boarding and priority boarding.